In the attached, I have also provided additional recommendations and resources that should improve the classroom experience for you and your students if helpful to you, such as the different attendance options that the academic leadership developed at the end of the fall term.

following consultation with entire University community SMU determined to remain a weapons-free campus. Specifically, SMU prohibits possession of weapons (either openly or in a concealed manner) on campus. For more information, please see: http://www.smu.edu/BusinessFinance/Police/Weapons\_Policy

Thank you for your help in promoting a great start to the spring 2021 semester. A copy of this letter and the attachments will be posted on the Office of the Provost website.
