53. In the movie Toy Story, Woody is the official spokesman for the Toy Story Foundation. He is giving a speech to the Toy Story Foundation's annual meeting. He says, "We are here to discuss the importance of giving back to the community. We believe that every child deserves a chance to play and have fun. That is why we have donated over $10 million to various charities and organizations around the world. We want to make sure that every child has access to toys and games that will help them develop their skills and abilities. We also believe that it is important to give back to the community, so we have organized several volunteer programs where our employees can help out at local schools and hospitals. We are proud of what we have accomplished so far, and we are committed to continuing our work to make the world a better place for everyone."
